

Letitia Dowling

As Senior Operations Manager at Grantmakers for Education, Letitia manages operational procedures and practices across the organization. She also works directly with our impact groups and serves as liaison for the board of directors. She has more than 15 years of experience across the education spectrum including teaching, school leadership, teacher recruitment and development, and education policy.